SUPREME FIGHT ON PROHIBITION

Judge Harlan Speaks Before Maryland Bar Association

EVIDENCE OF SPIES

New Yorkers, New Jerseyites and Many Others Are Averse to Eighteenth Amendment to Constitution

Atlantic City, N. J., June 25.—Judge William H. Harlan, of Belair, addressing the Maryland Bar Association here last night, condemned the Eighteenth amendment as an infringement on the Constitution of the United States and on the liberties of American citizens.

Judge Harlan traced the course of legislation, which he said encroached on the rights of citizens. He said the Eighteenth amendment was an attempt to "make people good by law."

The first "great blow to our happiness and unity" grew out of the Civil War, said Judge Harlan. He said all experience had proven that two races of widely different attainments could not live together on an equal basis and yet the Fourteenth amendment had been passed, "inflicting an almost fatal wound on our Constitution."

The white slave law, said Judge Harlan, was another that encroached on the States. Under this law, he said, an act punishable in Maryland by a fine of $10, becomes, if a woman is transported a half mile over a state line, an offense punishable by a fine of $5,000 and imprisonment of five years.

"Following this," said Judge Harlan, "comes the Eighteenth Amendment, which places under the care of the Federal Government the supervision of what the citizens of every State shall drink. This amendment is a glaring illustration of the effort to make people good by law and to regulate by the same rule communities whose diverse interests and diverse habits make different rules absolutely necessary. The effect of this amendment will be to inject the question of intoxicating liquors into every municipal, State and Federal election for many years to come, unless, as in the case of the Fourteenth Amendment, the constitutional provision is uniformly disregarded. This, it seems to me, will be the more likely to happen, because every American community resents the presence in it of paid spies and juries will not be apt to convict on their testimony."

Judge Harlan said this country had been afflicted for 40 years with a vast number of people who, having no business of their own to attend to, have been spending their time in trying to tell other people how they should conduct their business. In this connection he mentioned the prohibitionists, the followers of spiritualism and those who would wipe out immorality by law. The development of the labor union was next dwelt upon by the speaker. "Whatever the value of the labor union may have been in the past," he said, "at present it is the greatest force of evil in this country."

Special mention should be made of the mandolin class of about fifteen young girls and boys, which added very much to the pleasure of the audience and was enthusiastically encored.

GUILTY IN FIRST DEGREE

Youthful Murderer Ignores Weeping Mother And Tells Attorney He "Isn't Worried."

Washington, June 25.—John McHenry, charged with the murder of Detective James E. Armstrong, sat in Criminal Court No. 1 yesterday and maintained his attitude of cool indifference as Louis Holmes, foreman of the jury, said, "Guilty."

In full view of his weeping mother, the youthful "bad man" in response to the query of his counsel as to what he thought of the verdict replied, "I'm not worried."

McHenry gave no heed to his mother and little sister. He merely shrugged his shoulders and laughed, showing his gold teeth in a sneering grin.

The mother appeared to sense the coming verdict as the jurors returned to their box following an hour's deliberation, for when Holmes finally spoke, her head was buried in the arms of a woman sympathizer and she hardly heard the word that condemned her son for first degree murder.

Immediately after Louis Holmes, foreman, announced the verdict McHenry's counsel, S. McComas Hawken, demanded a poll. Each juror declared that the verdict as announced was his individual verdict, and Hawken then gave notice of filing a motion for a new trial.

CONSTITUTION MENACED BY DRYS

Clash on "Personal Rights Likely in Democratic Convention

MAY WAR ON BRYAN

Reviews 14th Amendment and its Results and Says 18th is Attempt to Make People Good by Law.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 25.—"The first thing we will do at San Francisco will be to beat Bryan so badly that he will have no chance except to bolt. We want to drive him out of the party. There is no hope for us with him in it."

The speaker was a responsible Tammany leader in the lobby of the Alexandria Hotel. With a large body of his fellows he is on his way to the convention, and planning there to "put the kibosh," as he expressed it, upon the prohibition law.

It is sufficiently evident that this will be the opening, indeed probably the supreme fight of the convention. The New Yorkers are against prohibition, so, too, the New Jerseyites, a number of whom, with the manager of the Edwards boom—if it be a boom—are now here. The Carter Harrison-Gov. Dunne crowd from Illinois is also here, and the members express a more modified form of antagonism to the Volstead act. I learn from them that the delegation as a whole will be in favor of a moist plank and a wet candidate.

VOLUNTEERS OF AMERICA

The Volunteers of America Sunday School, held a most enthusiastic social last evening at their mission hall, No. 113 North Fairfax street.

The social was in charge of Captain E. S. Dawson, who was ably assisted by Adjutant R. L. Grainger, Captain E. H. Gue, and Lieutenant George Grainger all of Washington, and a corps of local workers. In spite of the continuous downpour of rain it did not damper the enthusiasm of the large crowd who filled the Volunteer hall to its capacity.

Captain Gue sang several solos in his own inimitable way, accompanying himself with the guitar. Duets were also sung by Misses Margaret Robey, Mary E. Robey and Gladys Langley. Charles M. Robey and others. Refreshments were served in generous measure to all who attended. The affair came to a close with a practical talk by Adjutant Grainger and was voted by all present a success.

Captain Dawson is to be recommended for the great work being done under his leadership.

A unanimous vote of sympathy and prayers for the complete and speedy recovery was passed for Lieutenant Tracy F. Walsh, who is sick in the Episcopal, Eye, Ear and Throat Hospital in Washington.

COMPLAINS ABOUT GAS

(Communicated)

May a gas user ask if there is any hope held out by the city gas plant, or authorities, for an improvement in the supply of gas?

For several days past the pressure has been so poor that cooking is almost an impossibility, and inquiry at the gas plant brings forth the answer that the pressure is the same as usual.

The Naval Torpedo Station, it is understood, uses gas during the day, thereby reducing the pressure for home consumption, unless the output has been increased at the gas plant, though this place is closed at the time of evening when most housekeepers are preparing their dinner, and a canvas of the homes, I do not doubt, would result in a universal complaint of the gas situation.

Is there any relief in sight?

A housewife.

K. OF C. MINSTRELS SCORE BIG SUCCESS

Packed House Greets Players at Lyceum Hall Last Night

PLAY AGAIN TONIGHT

Three Hours of Solid Fun—Pretty Stage Decorations—Directed by C. M. Horgan.

A crowded house, continuous roars of laughter, and a triumphant success crowned the efforts of the first Knights of Columbus Minstrels at the Lyceum last night. For over three hours the K. of C. Minstrels held the attention of the large audience, and when the affair terminated past the eleventh hour, the opinion was unanimous in that the minstrels had fulfilled every expectation and had undoubtedly achieved the honor of being the "greatest laugh producer ever staged in Alexandria."

The "reign of humor" began when Ray Hellmuth and Joe Ross began as end men to engage in their farcical conduct. Both sang, and then the next thing we know was that Tom Priest, another end man, came dropping down from "Heben" as a little black angel. Thomas played his part in traditional form, and continued to amuse the assemblage until "Bill" Roland arrived also from "Heben," using, however, a different angle of entry in the matter of making his appearance in our midst. Between volleys of jokes and an atmosphere of humor and comedy, solos were rendered by the following: Misses M. Conlon, Eddie Downey, Miss M. Nugent, Miss Ruby Davis, Martin Greene, Miss N. Baggett, G. Jaeger, Miss E. Nugent. The young ladies' quartette was composed of Misses M. Hellmuth, M. Nugent, R. Davis and Eleanor Nugent. Miss Frances Conley a noted beauty of Pittsburgh took the part of the Goddess of Liberty.

Yet, with all that had transpired to this point, something more was to come. Madame Pechusa had yet to make her appearance. Gowned in the gorgeous costume of her native land of Cairo, Egypt, Madame Pechusa, to the strains of Oriental Music, gracefully glided onto the stage and thrilled the audience with marvelous demonstrations of her terpsichorean art. Madame Pechusa was received with wonderful applause, and the greeting given her filled her heart with joy, and, as she explained later, gave her more genuine satisfaction than she enjoyed when appearing in pre-war days before His Highness, the King of Bohemia. Madame Pechusa did not seem to be a bit fatigued after her long voyage, covering several weeks, and her mother, who accompanied her, told the reporter that in no time during her dancing career had she appeared to be more full of vigor. Madame Pechusa will appear again tonight, after which she contemplates spending some time at Mt. Ida Virginia, recuperating, after which she will return to her native land.

After the minstrels, the great case of "Smith versus Smythe" was to take place. While the stage changes were being made, Eddie Downey and Norris Roland successfully entertained the audience with some exceptionally good, and original, skits. George Jaeger rendered a violin solo.

Assembling also in the cast were Thos. McFarland, Frank Downham, Frank Fannon, Robert Whitestone, Richard L. Carne, Joseph Lash, and William Faulkner, in the ladies chorus were the Misses M. Whitestone, R. Gorman, D. Knight, K. Hoy, Miss Moore, H. Nugent, Mary Conlon and A. Graumann. The stage setting as designed by Messrs. Horgan and Munch proved a beautiful novelty and certainly fitted in splendidly with the entre affair, great credit is due Mr. Munch for the artistic arrangement of the Lyceum.

The second part of the show was participated in by the following: Wm. Devaughn, M. J. McFarland, Martin Greene, George Jaeger, Miss Mary Conlon, Tom Priest, Francis Downham, Ray Hellmuth, Miss M. Whitestone, Francis Fannon, Eddie Downey, Edward Munch, Robt. Whitestone, Anthony Conlon, Miss Dorothy Knight C. M. Horgan, Joseph Ross, Norris Roland, Miss Eleanor Nugent, Miss K. Hoy, Miss L. Moore, Miss Gronau, Miss Davis, Miss Madeline Conlon, Mr William Faulkner, Thomas McFarland, Miss M. Hellmuth, Miss N. Baggett.

The minstrel and affair will be repeated again tonight, the curtain rising at 8.15 o'clock.

The affair was given by Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, under the direction of C. M. Horgan with Miss Ella Hill as musical director.

RAIL STRIKERS BACK TO WORK

Everything Running in Good Shape at Potomac Yards

MAY GO OUT MONDAY

Country Faces a General Strike of all Railroad Men That Day Unless Action Taken on Wage Demands.

With all of the men who walked out at Potomac yards Wednesday night back on the job everything is running in smooth order today at these yards. The return of all of the men was completed yesterday afternoon when at 4 o'clock the second crew ninety-six per cent strong reported for work.

It is expected that the men again may walk out Monday as dispatches indicate a general railroad strike by that time unless the Railroad Labor Board takes immediate action on the wage demands according to information forwarded to President Wilson by leaders of the railroad employees yesterday.

The leaders said they would be unable to longer to hold the men and that the "outlaws" would put through a general walkout beginning Monday if no decision had been reached.

The Railroad Labor Board has replied to President Wilson's request that a settlement of the railroad wage controversy or a "partial settlement" be made immediately to prevent further "outlaw" walkouts of railroad employes.

Liquor Charms Robbers

James Treakle Wards off Gunmen With Pint of Rye, and They Forget to Take His Cash

"Hand over your money," demanded two negro robbers who at 9:45 o'clock last night entered the small store conducted by James M Treakle, 601 South St. Asaph street and with the threat one of the men pointed a pistol in a menacing manner at his head. Treakle says he had a good "sized roll" on his person and instead of complying with their command he offered them a pint of liquor he had for his personal use. This offer worked like magic, for the men left the place apparently satisfied after Treakle told them the police were coming. They went out the back door and scaled the fence on the Gibbon street side of the premises, having before entering placed a barrel beside the fence in order to make their exit easy. Treakle says the robbers were strangers, although he says he would be able to identify them he stated. He made a report of the robbery to the police today.

NEW PARTY IS ASKED

New York, June 25.—William Randolph Hearst calls for the organization of a new political party in a signed editorial published Monday morning in the New York American and his other newspapers, concluding as follows:

Citizens! Delay is dangerous; immediate action is imperative. Let us assemble in a new independent hall, issue a new declaration of political independence and consecrate ourselves anew to the human rights and popular liberties this republic was created to conserve."

Hearst denounces the action of the Republican convention at Chicago and says that Hiram Johnson would not have had a chance for the nomination if he had come with in structed delegates from a majority of the states, asserting: "Johnson was foredoomed to defeat in that convention of hidebound reactionaries and subsidized politicians because he was progressive and because he was popular." A large part of the editorial is devoted to praise of Johnson.

Referring to the resolution adopted in memory of Roosevelt, Hearst says: "It was like a desecration of the dead, for it was obvious enough that the Republican party has no use for any progressive except a dead progressive; that it considers a dead progressive an asset and a live progressive a liability."

As to the Democratic party, Hearts says: "The Democratic party offers no refuge for independent, upstanding Americans. It has traded its few progressive policies for the promise of a Baruch campaign fund raised from the same predatory interests that control and corrupt the Republican party. It has abandoned its Americanism and sacrificed its very democracy to become the agent of an autocrat more concerned in magnifying his importance abroad tahn he is in protecting the welfare of his own people at home. It has nothing to offer but the warning spectacle of the blind leading the blind into the ditch of defeat."

WEDDING INTERRUPTED

Bride's Father Arrested as Knot Was About to be Tied

Richmond, Va., June 25.—Just as Emanuel Wilkins was on the point of marrying Miss Ida Claire Leiberman, of 2207 Jefferson avenue, along came several officers and took the bride's papa, David Lieberman, a merchant, 45, off to the calaboose on a charge of buying goods stolen from the F. W. Woolworth Company, 1 East Broad street, and storing them in his business establishment.

This procedure caused the wedding to be put off until father could be bailed out. His case was continued yesterday in police court until July 14.

A dispatch was subsequently sent to New York directing the arrest of Albert C. Johnson, 30, who is honeymooning on Broadway with a winsome Richmond girl he recently married. Johnson was the assistant manager of the Woolworth Company, and is alleged to have stolen hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of goods from the firm and sold them to Lieberman.

Pinkerton detectives have been shadowing Lieberman's home and place of business for some time and were on the verge of searching his house because of the arrival of wedding present which they suspected of being part of the stolen goods.

CROPS SUFFER DAMAGE

Lenior County Hardest Hit by Hail, Cotton, Corn and Tobacco Being Severely Injured

Kinston, N. C., June 25.—Hail caused extensive damage to crops in a severe storm which cut a two-mile swath through Lenoir, Wayne and Pitt Counties last night. The loss in Lenoir County alone is estimated here to have spread over 2,000 acres of tobacco, 3,000 acres of cotton, and 4,000 acres of corn.

Tobacco plants were cut down to six inches in height with leaves stripped, cotton was badly torn, and corn was riddled and beaten down. One farmer gathered a bushel of hail stones from the roadside.

South Australia"s wheat crop for the 1919 1920 season will apparently be less than three quarters that of the preceding year.

THREE BOYS DROWN

Fourth is Rescued After Leaky Boat Goes to Bottom

Patchogue, Long Island, June 25.—Three boys were drowned in Patchogue Lake last night, when a leaky boat, in which they had been rowing sank about a hundred yards from shore. A fourth boy, who was a member of the party, was rescued by citizens, who heard his cries for help.

The dead are Willis Kemp, his brother, Forest, and Richard Kudfahl. Mrs. Annie Kemp, the mother, is a widow.

FIVE KILLED IN FIRE

Vancouver, B. C., June 25.—Five persons were burned to death yesterday in a fire that destroyed the Balmoral apartment house, a six story building here.

Many of the families were still in bed when the flames burst along the second floor corridors. Charles Dennehy's death was sensational He leaped from the sixth floor and missed the firemen's net. He was a war veteran, taken prisoner by the Germans at Ypres and his leg was amputated while he was a prisoner of war.

REFUSES HELP TO AGENTS

Baltiomre Police Informed U. S. Must Enforce Volstead Law

Baltimore, June 24.—The Volstead enforcement act must be taken care of by Federal officials alone, and local prohibition Director Stone has no right to expect the police of Baltimore city to help out his sleuths in conducting raids, making arrests or otherwise carrying out the provisions of that act.

This is the gist of the advice given Police Commissioner Charles D. Gaither by Attorney General Armstrong and advisor of all officials of the State government.

Armstrong's advice to Police Commissioner Gaither was asked by the latter following the disclosures in the Valentini—Julius case when a reputable physician of Baltimore was accosted at 4 o'clock in the morning by one of the representatives of the local prohibition director's office who afterwards turned out to have a police record, is sweeping in its denial of the right of the Federal officers to call upon Maryland officials to enforce their law for them.

Under its term not only the city police but all State officials are under no obligation to help the prohibition officers.

WHAT WAR COST GERMANY

A member of the American Expeditionary Forces stationed at Coblentz writing to a friend in this country tells of pathetic scenes in the city on the Rhine. The following is an extract:

"I was in a restaurant one night when an old, sweet faced motherly woman came into sell bouquets of lilies of the valley. Nearly every man with a woman, bought flowers which sold for two marks. The flower vendor, I learned, lost her three sons in the war and is now supporting grandchildren.

Recent statistics published in Germany on that country's war losses state that 1,350,000 men were killed. There are today 520,000 war widows, according to the statistics. 1,130,000 war orphans and 500,000 maimed or consumptives, supported mostly by charity.

No wonder the ex-kaiser saws wood in order to keep his mind from contemplating the horrors he has brought upon his country. Bismarck, while the shadows of death were appearing in his path, said "I could have averted three wars and saved the lives of eighty thousand men. However, God has forgiven me."

RECKLESS AUTOISTS

A resident of this city while operating an automobile near Johnson"s Hill, Arlington county, yesterday afternoon narrowly averted a serious accident by his presence of mind. The automobile, containing several passengers, among whom was the chauffer's mother, was proceeding a ta safe speed when another machine from Alexandria running at high speed, suddenly appeared a few yards in front. There was but one way to avoid a collision, and that was run from the road into a ditch, risking the overturning of the auto and injury, if not death, of some of the occupants. Fortunately, however, no one was hurt. The oncoming automobile was in charge of a young man who was speeding in order to pass two other cars ahead of him.

Many young persons, male and female, operate automobiles. Some are cautious, but the majority of such are inclined to be reckless.

BRYAN ELIMINATIONS

After noting carefully the Bryan viewpoint on such tentative candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination as Messrs. Wilson, McAdoo, Palmer, Edwards, Clark, Gerard, Marshall and Owen, the Richmond Journal says, the conclusion is inevitable that with the exception of the Oklahoma senator and Secretary of Agriculture Meredith, who are classed as among the "available few," the specifications laid down as desirable fit nobody save Mr. Bryan himself. He declares that the nominee must be known to be for "woman suffrage, for prohibition and against Wall Street.'" This trio of requirements, singularly enough, is included in the Bryan category, hence it is obvious that if the convention favors all three Bryan is the logical candidate.

LEAPS FROM AQUEDUCT

A man who gave his name as Alexander Hepburn, 57 years old, attempted to leap into notoriety yesterday by jumping from the Aqueduct Bridge at Georgetown into the Potomac river. He was rescued and will recover from the effects of his foolhardy exploit.

If Hepburn was bent upon making himself famous by his feat, he should know that shortly before he was born a Georgetown boy while bathing with others jumped from the bridge and received no injury. The Aqueduct Bridge is eighty feet high.

PASSING OF VOLSTEAD

After representing his district in Congress for eighteen years, the sponsor of the Volstead act has failed to secure a renomination. It is true that his successful rival, though he had the support of the anti-prohibitionists as well as the Non-Partisan League, is himself a prohibitionist. But this fact does not diminish appreciably the moral effect of Mr. Volstead's defeat. The voters in the Seventh Minnesota district obviously cared more for what he had done than for what his successor might do. He stood as the especial champion of legislation to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment which has aroused wide resentment.

The American people as a whole wish neither the return of the old-time saloon nor a revolutionary interference with personal liberty. They do not agree that it is necessary to burn down the house in order to roast the pig. They feel that the millions who desire a mild stimulant and do not abuse it have some right to consideration. There are difficulties in the way of following this safe middle course, no doubt; and no enforcement act would be wholly free from defects. But experience has already shown that the present act is intolerably severe, and that public sentiment, particularly in the centers of population, is against it.

Mr. Volstead is one of the first victims of the antagonism which a measure born of fanaticism has aroused. He is not likely to be the last.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

CAN you imagine a wash day, with practically nothing to do? Washday seems almost like a holiday, instead of a day of drudgery, when you do your washing with Clean Easy Naptholeine Wash Soap.

Just soak your clothes overnight; shave ½ bar of Clean Easy into 4½ gallons of water; let it dissolve; boil for ten minutes; rinse thru two clean waters; blue and dry in open air and the washing's done. No tired, aching back, no red hands or skinned knuckles. You feel just as fresh as when you first began your day's work.

Clean Easy may be purchased at any grocery store. One bar will do two ordinary weeks' washing—Just think, an average week's wash done for only a few cents and in ten minutes time. Clean Easy does not hurt the fabric. Try it today, and your house will have no room for the old fashioned scrubbing board.

Notice how different Clean Easy looks from other soaps. Ask for Clean Easy by name at your grocer's. Clean Easy is the only soap made that will do this work.

MARINE CORPS AT QUANTICO

To the Editor;
Alexandria Gazette,
City.
Dear Sir:

It is surprising to me to see how quickly the young men of Alexandria are responding to the opportunities afforded by the U. S. Marine Corps Institute at Quantico. No less than eight men, in as many weeks, have enlisted here to take up a professional or mechanical education, and wisely too.

Where can a young man, after leaving high school, spend two or even three years of his time to better advantage than at the Marine Institute at Quantico, Virginia.

Parents, with the good of their sons at heart, should go into this more thoroughly and give them a chance. They will come out better disciplined, better equipped for life's work and last, but not least, an American.

The great cry today is for men to carry our trade into the South American Republics. What do we find? Europe taking the cream of the trade away from us because, whilst we have the goods, we have not the men to represent them.

Therefore, I would advise every young man to take up a course in commercial, Spanish, or commercial French, new courses which include instructions in the business procedures of Latin America and the Spanish and French Nations, designed to fit men in the export trade.

Arrangements can be made for positions before they finish their enlistment. There is no finer opportunity offered the young men of today than a two or three year course at the Marine Institute at Quantico, Va.

Alexandria is certainly doing its share and good luck to the boys that have the ambition to give it a try.

Very truly yours,
Harry Grayhurst, 526 King St.

LEARN TO SWIM WEEK

Red Cross Chapter Chairmen throughout Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia and the District of Columbia, comprising the Potomac Division, have been requested by the Divisional Bureau of First Aid, to co-operate in the "Learn To Swim" Week which began Monday, and ends June 26th.

These chairmen have been asked to obtain permission for the use of all local swimming pools, bathing beaches, etc., both public and private and to obtain the assistance of their managers during the above period. They have been instructed to register all applicants and assign them to the various pools in their vicinity in such a way as to prevent overcrowding.

To carry out this work efficiently, the services of as many qualified volunteer swimming instructors as possible, are to be secured, through the pool and beach managers and from local athletes, and they in turn are to be allotted to various bathing or swimming places.

The Girl Scouts, the Campfire Girls, the Y. W. C. A., and the Y. M. C. A., will also be invited to assist in this nation wide movement of the Red Cross to lessen the number of annual accidental deaths by drowning.

OLYMPIC WILL BURN OIL

After Great War Record Big Liner Returns to Merchant Marine

New York, June 25.—After an absence of nearly a year ,the White Star liner Olympic, one of largest passenger carriers in the world, will be restored to the New York, Cherbourg and Southampton service within a few days.

The Olympic served as a transport during the war and she carried more than 200,000 American troops and rammed and sunk a German submarine. With the last of the American soldiers home after the signing of the armistice, she was taken into dry-dock for an overhauling. There her 195 furnaces were converted to burn oil instead of coal.

Philadelphia, June 25.—An automobile turning turtle as it ran over an embankment on the King's Highway between Haddonfield and Ellisburg Monday afternoon caused the death of one man, while another man was so badly injured that he was reported as being in a critical condition, at the Homeopathic Hospital in Camden last night. The man was Warren Cranmer, 42 years old, of near Colestown. His 19-year-old son John was operating the machine, but he escaped injury.

Mrs. Nathan Straus Gives All Her Precious Stones to Aid Palestine

New York, June 25.—Mrs. Nathan Straus has donated all her jewels, valued at $18,500 to the Zionist organization of America, for the development of medical and health service in Palestine, the organization announced here recently.

She made the gift at the same time her husband gave the Zionist organization $100,000 for a health and medical research department for the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, but at her request it was not made public until after she had sailed for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Straus are now on their way to Palestine.

Mrs. Straus' action in giving up jewels, many of which were heirlooms has started a similar movement among the Jewish women of England and Palestine, according to reports received at Zionist headquarters here.

SHOW MEMBERS START RIOT

Trouble Begins When Locomotive Crashes Into Company's Train

Milton, Pa., June 25.—Employees of a traveling carnival show started a riot here Saturday when a locomotive sent to pull their train to another town crashed into it, damaging their property and injuring [illegible] of the members, two seriously. Those injured are James Montgomery, of New York, broken shoulder, and internal injuries; Harry Jones, 19, Philadelphia, arm and shoulder broken.

Both were taken to the Mary M. Packer Hospital, Sunbury, where doctors said today they will recover.

According to information today the carnival employees after the accident rushed the engine and stoned W. E. Boyd, the engineer. Then they started for the engineer of the locomotive. He dashed down the opposite side of the cabin and up the railroad tracks with a howling crowd at his heels. After a chase of half a mile he finally outdistanced his pursuers and made a train for Sunbury, his home.

Boyd asserts the air brake refused to work.

YOU NEVER CAN TAME A WILD CAT
Mr. Dodson Warns Against Use of Treacherous, Dangerous Calomel

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodsons Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless pleasant and safe to give to children; they like it.

MOTORISTS KILLED

Lawrence Aslop, Succumbs to Injuries Received in Fire Collision

Colliding head on with a hose truck of Engine Company No. 7 while riding a motorcycle at Rhode Island and Florida Avenues northwest, Washington, yesterday after noon, Lawrence Alsop, 22 years old, of 30 Bates street northwest, died early this morning at Emergency Hospital of internal injuries.

The fire truck was speeding east on Rhode Island Avenue, and Alsop, on his motorcycle, was traveling west on Florida Avenue. Alsop apparently saw the truck and attempted to turn east on Rhode Island Avenue with the fire apparatus W. J. Berry, driver of the truck, swerved to the left side of the thoroughfare in an effort to give the motorcycle rider room for the turn.

Alsop turned too wide and came directly in the path of the heavier machine. The motor was crushed, the rider thrown on the truck's bumper, and the fire truck jumped over the north curb. Before Berry could stop the truck it had demolished a street lamp and crushed the left front wheel against the curb.

Members of the company aboard the truck were showered with glass from the street lamp, but escaped injury other than a few minor scratches.

The alarm which called the truck to Rhode Island avenue and Summit place was false.

FLOOD IN NEW YORK

Water Short Circuits Subway—One Man Killed, Three Injured

New York, June 25.—Subway traffic was tied up for several hours, cellars were flooded and considerable other property damaged by a near-cloudburst over the lower part of the city last night. The subway third rails were short circuited by the flood of water.

The temperature, according to the weather man, dropped from 70 to 62 in less than half an hour before the storm burst.

The weather bureau said the storm was local, and the most serious effects were felt in lower Manhattan, Brooklyn and Staten Island, which were inundated. The storm was accompanied by thunder and almost continuous lightning.

NEW FOX SPECIAL

Love horse-racing, fighting, intrigue, trickery and other sensational issues are combined convincingly in "Should a Husband Forgive?" the big William Fox special will be shown for the first time at the Richmond Theatre today. In this superbly staged picture of modern life R. A. Walsh, who wrote and directed it, has done some of the best work of his career. It is a story of keen human interest woven into a heroic sized panorama.

The question asked by "Should a Husband Forgive?" is a big one. A shadow is cast across some lives and over the threshhold of others because a good wife assumes that husbands do not forgive. The shadow lengthens when years later the woman's son, infected with the common virus of propaganda, gives up the girl he loves because appearances are against her. The happy end is logical.

The all-star cast is uniformly strong. Mrs. James K. Hackett plays the Woman; and Miriam Cooper, well known as the heroine of other big scale productions, is seen as the Girl.

BRYAN WILL NOT RUN

Is Too Busy Fixing Democratic Platform Planks, is Reply to Indorsement

Great Fals, Mont., June 25.—William J. Bryan will not be a candidate of a third party for the Presidency, he declared yesterday in commenting on a dispatch last night from Lincoln, Neb., telling of his indorsement for the Presidency by Nebraska members of the Committee of Forty-eight.

"I am too busy fixing planks for the Democratic Party to think of running for President," he said, "and I am doubtful of third-party expediency."

Mr. Bryan reiterated his opposition to any candidate not in sympathy with "strict enforcement" of prohibition statutes, and said he had prepared a plank for submission to the Democratic National Convention indorsing prohibition laws and pledging their enforcement, and another providing jail sentences for profiteers.

Mr. Bryan left today for San Francisco.

INGOMAR

With a beautiful background of California, little Zasu Pitts, who was seen in "The Other Half," "Poor Relations" and other photoplays, will be seen at the Ingomar Theatre today in "Seeing it Through."

The picture gives Miss Pitts opportunity to play one of the parts in which she excels that of a poor girl up against all sorts of difficulties, but not once losing her sense of humor and her quaint philosophy of life. The picture was made by Brentwood for Robertson-Cole. "The Lost City" will also be shown.
